PASS-FAIL OPTION FORM

PASS-FAIL REGULATIONS

1. A student may take a maximum of 8 Concordia College semester credits or their equivalent (not including transfer credits) on a pass-fail (S-U) basis; no more than 4 semester credits per department can be graded on an S-U basis, and a course taken for a grade of S-U cannot satisfy any of the liberal arts Core requirements.

2. The decision to take a course on an S-U basis must be made by the deadline published in the pocket calendar.
   No applications or changes will be accepted after the deadline date.
   This form will be on file in the Registrar’s Office and will be changed to to S-U at the end of the semester.

3. The minimum letter grade for passing with a grade of S is a C minus (C-). The grade of U is the result of D-level and F-level work. Grades of S and U are not calculated in the grade point average. No credit is awarded for the grade of U.

4. Permission of the instructor is not required, and no notification of S-U registration is sent to the instructor.

5. You are strongly encouraged to discuss opting for pass-fail grading with your faculty advisor.

---

Student ID ____________________________ Date ______________

Printed Name ____________________________ Class ____________________________

First Last

Signature ______________________________

---

COURSE TO BE TAKEN PASS-FAIL (S-U)

Department ____________________________ Course Code/Number ____________

Instructor ______________________________ Credits ____ Term ____________

---

I wish to change my registration from pass-fail to a regular grade.

______________________________
Signature ____________________________ Date ______________

March 2017